1. If a large population is maintained by self-fertilization in even-numbered generations and by random mating in odd-numbered generations, what happens to the inbreeding coefficient?

2. Calculate the inbreeding coefficient of individual I in the accompanying pedigree.